Greetings, Fellow Quilters!

It seems that fall has arrived and with it some cooler temperatures and more time with our sewing machines. Fall is a great time to enjoy piecing a new quilt. And it is also time to get going on those Christmas projects, or maybe finishing them if you planned ahead. Cooler weather does give us an opportunity to enjoy being outdoors, too, so please remember to take a break from sitting at your machine occasionally and take a walk outside.

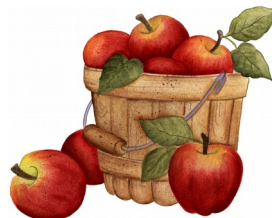

We have a special treat for our program this month! Our own Janell Williams will tell us about "My Quilting Journey". Janell is a busy homeschooling mom of three, but still finds time to create beautiful quilts. She is going to show us her first quilts and tell how she has progressed to where she is today. She has lots of things to show us, so be sure to join us at 1st United Methodist Church in Arkansas City on October 12 at 5:30pm. Masks are required and socially distanced seating will be utilized.

Another special treat for us in October will be three opportunity quilts. The Wellington Quilt Guild, Sacred Heart Catholic Church and our own WVQG Opportunity Quilt will all be displayed. So there are plenty of "opportunities" for you to purchase tickets and have a chance to win these beautiful quilts. Since we haven't been able to shop as much as we like, here is your chance to win a quilt that you haven't had to work too hard on. Please support these worthy causes at our October meeting.

We hope to see many of you in Arkansas City on October 12, however, the most important thing is to be safe in this era of COVID-19. So if you are uncomfortable with in-person attendance, please stay home and check the web site later in the month for pictures of the meeting to be posted.

When life gives you scraps...make a quilt!

WANTED: OLD PILLOWCASES

Please look through your linen closets or cedar chests for old pillowcases. They make excellent dog beds for the shelter. Either leave them at Field to Fabric or fill them up with your fabric scraps and sew the opening shut. I keep a pillow case by my work station and drop scraps in it as I cut fabric or trim blocks. Don't stuff them too firm as dogs like to snuggle into the pillow.

Didn't you enjoy the September meeting. It was so nice to get together and see all the smiles on everyone faces. All the quilts and projects you all finished. What about the recipes on pot holders, wasn't that a clever idea. I am always so amazed to see all the things everyone makes, you all are so creative.

I am looking forward to the October meeting with Janell Williams sharing her story on her Quilt Journey. You don't want to miss it. Bring a friend and tell them to wear a mask and to keep their distance. HA! See we are already having fun. I hope to see you there.

Do you have a story from the past that we can feature in our newsletter? Maybe some special handy work your mother or grandmother done that would be of interest to the guild. Just email me at judyp.autotech@gmail.com, or phone me at 620-358-3301.
